- 2.3. Payments can be made via e-transfer, check, or credit card with a 3% fee
- 2.4. If full payment is not received by the due date, The Rise Resort reserves the right to cancel or reschedule the event.

3. Cancellations and Refunds

- 3.1. Cancellations must be made in writing to The Rise Resort.
- 3.2. Cancellations made 60 days or more before the tournament will forfeit the original deposit.
- 3.3. Cancellations made within 60-14 days of the event will forfeit the 50% payment of estimated costs as per the payment schedule.
- 3.4 Cancellations inside 14 days will forfeit the full payment
- 3.4. In the event of inclement weather or unforeseen circumstances that affect the event, The Rise Resort will work with the client to reschedule the tournament or provide a partial refund based on services rendered.

4. Event Management and Staff

- 4.1. The Rise Resort will provide event coordination and on-site staff to assist with tournament setup, management, and operation.
- 4.2. A tournament director will be assigned to oversee all aspects of the event, including coordination of tee times, scoring, and event logistics.
- 4.3. All players and attendees must adhere to the golf course's rules and code of conduct, as outlined in the player guidelines provided by The Rise Resort.
5. Tournament Format
- 5.1. The tournament format, including tee times, rules, and event schedule, will be customized in coordination with The Rise Resort's event planning team.

6. Weather and Course Conditions

- 6.1. The Rise Resort will make every effort to ensure the golf course is in excellent condition for your tournament.
- 6.2. In the case of adverse weather (e.g., heavy rain, lightning), The Rise Resort reserves the right to delay, suspend, or cancel the tournament for the safety of participants.
- 6.3. A rain check or rescheduling options may be offered based on the nature and severity of the weather disruption.

7. Liability and Insurance

- 7.1. The Rise Resort will not be held responsible for any injury, loss, or damage to personal property incurred during the tournament.
- 7.2. It is recommended that the organizer secure event insurance to cover potential risks associated with the tournament.

8. Alcohol and Catering

- 8.1. The Rise Resort provides food and beverage services for tournaments. External catering or alcohol is not permitted unless pre-approved by The Rise Resort.
- 8.2. Alcoholic beverages must be consumed in accordance with The Rise Resort's policy and British Columbia's Liquor Licencing Regulations.
- 8.3. The event organizer is responsible for any damage or disturbances caused by guests' alcohol consumption.

9. Conduct and Behavior

- 9.1. All participants must conduct themselves in a respectful manner. The Rise Resort reserves the right to remove any individuals who exhibit disruptive behavior or violate the code of conduct.
- 9.2. Any damage to resort property or golf course facilities caused by participants will be the responsibility of the event organizer and will incur additional charges.

10. Marketing and Photography

- 10.1. By participating in the golf tournament, participants consent to the use of their likeness, name, and photographs in promotional materials by The Rise Resort.
- 10.2. The event organizer may request specific exclusions if they do not wish to have certain individuals photographed or featured in promotional content.

11. Force Majeure

- 11.1. The Rise Resort will not be held liable for any failure to perform its obligations under these terms and conditions if such failure is caused by an event beyond the reasonable control of The Rise Resort, including, but not limited to, natural disasters, strikes, pandemics, or government regulations.

12. Governing Law

- 12.1. These terms and conditions shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of British Columbia.
- 12.2. Any disputes arising from these terms and conditions shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in British Columbia.

13. Modifications

- 13.1. The Rise Resort reserves the right to modify these terms and conditions at any time. Any such modifications will be communicated to the event organizer in writing.

Liability and Safety Policy

The Rise Resort (the "Resort") and its affiliated premises, including all surrounding roads, pathways, and outdoor areas, prioritize the safety of our guests. However, the Resort shall not be held liable for any injuries, accidents, or damages that occur during the course of your visit to the Resort or any of its premises.

By entering the Resort's premises or participating in any event held at the Resort, you acknowledge and accept the following terms:
Assumption of Risk

You understand and agree that, while the Resort takes all reasonable precautions to ensure a safe environment, there are inherent risks associated with activities on the Resort's premises. You assume full responsibility for any personal injury, property damage, or loss suffered by you or your guests that may occur on the premises, including areas adjacent to the Resort such as roads and paths leading to and from the venue.
Waiver of Liability

You agree to waive any and all claims that you have or may in the future have against the Resort, its owners, officers, employees, agents, contractors, and affiliates (collectively the "Releasees") and to release the Releasees from any and all liability, loss, expense, injury, claims, demands, actions, causes of action, or damages, including but not limited to personal injury or property damage, arising out of or in connection with the use of the Resort premises, facilities, or any associated areas, due to any cause whatsoever including the negligence of the Releasees, breach of contract, breach of any statutory or other duty of care including any duty of care owed under the British Columbia Occupiers Liability Act.
Injury and Accident Prevention

The Resort does not assume responsibility for accidents or injuries that result from falls, trips, or any other personal accidents on the premises. Guests and participants are encouraged to remain vigilant and take appropriate care when walking, participating in activities, or engaging with any aspect of the Resort's facilities.

Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Releasees for any and all liability, costs, expenses, claims, losses, or damages, (including legal fees on a full indemnity basis), for damage to the Resort property and damage to the property of or personal injury to any third party, arising from any incident occurring on the Resort premises or in connection with any activities held on the premises related in any way to your event. This includes, but is not limited to, any injury, death, or property damage sustained by you, your guests, or any third party.

General Terms

In the event of an injury or medical emergency, the Resort will make reasonable efforts to assist, but the Resort is not responsible for providing medical treatment or for any medical costs incurred during or resulting from the event.

This agreement and any rights, duties, and obligations as between the parties shall be governed and interpreted solely in accordance with the laws of British Columbia and no other jurisdiction. Any litigation involving the parties to this agreement shall be brought solely within British Columbia and shall be within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of British Columbia.

If any part of this agreement is deemed unenforceable, the remaining terms shall remain an enforceable contract between the parties. In entering into this agreement, you agree that you are not relying upon any oral or written representations or statements made by the Releasees with respect to the safety of the event or activities at the Resort. You acknowledge and agree that you have read and understand the terms of this agreement and are aware that by signing this agreement you are waiving certain legal rights that you or your heirs, next of kin, executors, administrators, assigns, and representatives may have against the Releasees.
