One of the greatest gifts of this "job" is meeting so many incredible people, when someone lets me into their love story, I do my best to turn it into photos to keep forever. I know how big of a deal it is to be trusted with lifes most important moments. I cannot wait to meet you and capture your story.

Bree Tombs | breetombs.com

As a Wedding and Couple's Photographer I love golden light, genuine laughter, and the beautiful landscapes of the Okanagan. When you book me for your session I hope to give you a heartfelt experience, new memories, and photos to cherish for a lifetime. I promise I will be giggling with you throughout the whole session!

Sofia Katherine | sofiakatherine.ca

Your wedding will be over in the blink of an eye. Hug your family members. Eat the incredible meal you spent months planning. Sneak away to look at the stars outside. The magic isn't in perfect photographs. It's in the moments that become them. I'll quietly find the light while you live every second of it. I am "semi-local", located in Calgary but have family in Vernon. I have no travel charges for anywhere in BC & Alberta.

I am about capturing who you are, in a place that you love. This isn't about me showing up and just creating some pretty pictures. This for sure is a two-way street!! I want to learn your story and capture it exactly how you live it and feel it. Perfectly imperfect. Forget what you think the photos should look like and just embrace it all, the loud, and the quiet, those belly laughs, goosebumps, and the unexpected touches, and all the rest of that juicy real-life stuff

Danika Camba | danikacamba.ca

My commitment to you is to photograph your wedding day as it is. The beautiful, fun, and emotional portraits. The genuine candids that make you giggle. The family chaos and calm all in one place. The moments that bring tears or laughter. All of it, honestly, as it happens. Not just what it looked like. How it felt.

What started as a love for beautiful celebrations has grown into so much more.
